SONOMA WINE IN GREAT DEMAND

Valley Witnesses Remarkable Procession on the Eve of National Prohibition.

Into the realm of Bacchus' beloved vale came trooping a host of vintage seekers this week, seeking to possess and cache away all the wine that they could carry away with them before the dawn of prohibition's dread day. Sonoma Valley never saw such a rush to stock up. Where they came from, where they were going, or whence returning no one seemed to know, but the fact was apparent that a marvelous procession of motor vehicles passed through town loaded to the gunwales with wine which has made Sonoma Valley famous. It was as though all the satyrs in the country were in cahoots with the nymphs and fawns of our vineyards, and let down the barriers in the dread days just prior to the great drought. If one were fanciful and poetic, he could have heard Bacchus' raucous laugh as he beheld the satyrs scampering round with their barrels and jugs aided and abetted by the nymphs of hill and valley, for the weather has been wondrous fair, and the zephyrs kindly and alluring. All the elements allied themselves with the worshippers of Bacchus, who made their last mad pilgrimage hither this week for their beloved libations.

Excellent wine has been disposed of for $1.25 per gallon for white and 75 cents for red. Some of the rare old vintage of the fifties has sold at $6.50 per gallon, but gone now forever is the old wine, or any prospect of it. Crude new stuff will come to light now and then, but connoisseurs will have to seek in foreign lands for the quality they once found in Sonoma cellars.

For the last month there have been large shipments of wine from here to the Orient and to Europe. Also there have been many carloads of sacramental wine consigned to New York. One Sonoma Valley man shipped sacramental wine which cost him in freight and cooperage alone $16,000. When the wine is disposed of he may get the outlay back, but at present the wine is tied up in a New York warehouse.

Two of our biggest manufacturers, Messrs. Sebastiani and Kunde, are in New York at the present time looking after their wine interests.

The government has been selling stamps to registered wineries up to the present time, and jugs and casks frisked out of here by eager buyers the past week have borne these seals.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK RE-ELECTS OFFICIALS

The directors of the First National Bank of Sonoma met in annual session Tuesday night, and the efficint officers of the previous year, including the same directors, were re-elected for the ensuing year.

The officers are: Fred Batto, president; N. J. Heggie, vice-president and cashier; Miss Amy Heggie, assistant cashier.

The directors are: Messrs. Proletti, Mosso, L. H. Green, F. Batto and N. J. Heggie.

The institution is enjoying the best and biggest business in its history, and the confidence of the community in the officials, and courteous treatment of customers is winning for the First National a fine clientele.

HEIRS OF A. FERINI HERE FROM SOUTH

Mrs. R. Turri and Mrs. Harry Albert of San Luis Obispo were in Sonoma Thursday on business connected with the estate of their uncle, the late A. Ferini who died here in November. They had just heard of his death and are the only surviving relatives other than a brother in Switzerland.

Public Administrator Frank Phillips is handling the estate for the absent representative and will also act for the nieces from the South.

A will written in Swiss and thought to be Ferini's will when fully translated proved to be a will executed by deceased's father. The nieces in San Luis Obispo learned of their uncle's death through the San Francisco Swiss newspaper.

MRS. J. H. WEISE IS PRESIDENT

Elected New Head of Glen Ellen Women's Improvement Club—Other Officers.

The Glen Ellen Women's Improvement Club held its annual election last Friday at Mayflower Hall, and named the following ladies to direct the affairs of the active organization during 1920: Mrs. J. H. Weise, president; Mrs. George O'Donnell, vice-president; Mrs. Eliza Shepard, secretary; Mrs. C. J. Poppe, treasurer; Mesdames Gordenker, O'Donnell and Erickson trustees; Mrs. Rochambeau, corresponding secretary.

The Glen Ellen Women's Improvement Club has given many highly successful affairs during the past year for the Jack London Memorial Library, which will be erected shortly. They succeeded in getting an appropriation for the library from the Chamber of Commerce at Santa Rosa a few months ago, and are planning more activities to hasten the laying of the corner stone for their beloved project.

Mrs. Weise, the new president of the club, is the wife of Harry Weise, supervisor from this district, and she will make a gracious and efficient executive.

AUSTRIAN BOY WRITES TO SONOMA TAILOR FOR CLOTHES

Martin Leixner, the local tailor, is in receipt of a unique order for a suit of clothes from Austria. His fourteen-year-old nephew there has written a letter enclosing a 20-heller paper bill as first payment on a suit, explaining that clothes in Austria come high now, and he would have to pay 6000 krown, or about $125, for a suit, which for a boy of fourteen is going pretty strong, so the youngster bethought himself of his uncle in America. He had only the twenty-heller bill, which is about one-fifth of a cent, to bind the bargain, but knowing his uncle to be a goodhearted fellow, he took a chance. But Mr. Leixner finds he cannot send new clothes to Austria, so he will make the suit, have some good looking California lad break it in, and when it has been worn a week or two, he will start it on its journey to Europe, and Austria will then see what fine clothes they make in Sonoma. Who knows, we may become famous as a fashion center?

CEMENT CONTRACT LET FOR SONOMA-PETALUMA HIGHWAY

The board of supervisors Wednesday morning passed upon and allowed claims, and considered the changing of certain school district boundaries.

The precincts of Union, Marin and San Antone school districts in the southern part of the county were changed.

Bids for 41,050 barrels of standard cement, for use in the construction of the Petaluma-Valley Ford and Petaluma-Sonoma highways were opened by the clerk after the noon adjournment. Seven companies submitted bids with but little competition in evidence, there being but one cent difference in price to the barrel. Five companies offered the cement for $3.78 per barrel, which amounts to $155,169.00 and two for $3.79, or $400.50 more. All the conditions, shipping, allowance for sacks returned, discount for cash, and imposition of war tax, were almost identical in every bid.

The A. F. Tomasini Hardware Co. of Petaluma was awarded the contract.

Bids were considered for the purchase of corrugated culvert pipe in dimensions from 12 to 36 inches in diameter, as well as for the construction of several miles of gravel and macadamized highways in the county.

A. J. Fairbanks was awarded the contract for constructing the gravel section, 3.7 miles long on the Petaluma-Sonoma road, his bid being $23-152.00 for a 16 foot road 5 inches thick. The bid for excavating was $1.15 a cubic yard.

The application of H. W. Hinze and Phillip Brocchini to operate an automobile freight line between Santa Rosa and Petaluma was received and taken under advisement.

BARNEY COHEN TO TAKE BRIDE

Another Returned Soldier Is Captive Of Cupid. To Wed Charming San Francisco Girl.

Barney Cohen, who was a corporal in the war and saw service overseas is another Sonoma soldier boy who has been made captive by Cupid. The dashing Barney, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Cohen of Agua Caliente, will be married Sunday, February 1st, to Miss Rose Willbach of San Francisco. The ceremony will be performed at the San Bruno Avenue Synagogue in the presene of relatives of the happy couple. The honeymoon will be spent in the Valley of the Moon.

Barney Cohen had a narrow escape from death when returning from France and it all happened after he arrived safely from across the sea. A troop train bearing home bound soldiers to their Pacific Coast homes plunged into a river and Barney had a thrilling experience although he was unhurt.

LEHRKE WATER SUBJECT OF HEARNG BY COMMISSION

Hearing on the application of Mrs. A. Lehrke to abandon the water service in the Lehrke tract came up here Wednesday before Examiner Satterwhite of the Railroad Commission. Much testimony was taken and Attorney Dinkelspiel for the petitioner attempted to convince the Commission that since no written agreement was entered into between Lehrke and settlers in the tract that water would be furnished, and as they had not been paying water bills, that the abandonment was justified.

Attorney Frank Sprague appeared in behalf of the protesting property owners in the Lehrke tract, and several witnesses' testimony was taken. They all agreed that the deprivation of water would cause them loss or hardship, and Mr. Sprague pointed out that the value of the land would be considerably less without the water, and that its original price was fixed by Lehrke in consideration of the water to be furnished. W. W. Carter and Otto Wagner testified as to values.

Attorney Sprague had a tilt with the Examiner over the admission of some testimony, and objected to the technical advantage the petitioner's lawyer sought to take to evade responsibility for maintaining the water service.

The hearing was concluded, and the Commission will rule on the matter at some future date.

Sobre Vista Water Too

Mr. Fitzgerald, the owner of the Sobre Vista water supply, is asking for an increase of rates in the Springs district, in order that the plant may be enlarged and extended. He claims no connection with Harvey Toy, owner of the tract, and is successor to Ed Quay in the control of the plant. The matter was given a hearing Wednesday.

EDGAR CLEMENTS' CONDITION IMPROVED

Word comes from the St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco that the condition of Edgar Clements, the prominent young orchardist who was run over by his tractor last week, is showing considerable improvement. The bones set in perfect apposition, say the physicians, and the infection has been checked.

Twelve drain tubes are aiding the surgeons in clearing up a condition which gave considerable trouble at the start. The lung congestion has also righted itself, and the doctors declare that they are much encouraged with the progress of their patient.

Sonoma friends will be pleased to hear this good news, which was given out by his brother, Will Clements, who was in town Thursday evening, and had just come from the hospital.

Louis Lamotte attended the funeral of his father who died at Melitta last Saturday. He was in the quarry business and was a native of Belgium.

YOUNG COUPLE PLIGHT TROTH

Shower Given in Honor of Miss Ethel Small, Who Will Wed Clyde Johannsen of Pioneer Family.

Miss Ethel Small, the gifted young singer of Eldridge, has been wooed and won by Clyde Johannsen, who will claim the charming girl for his bride before many moons.

Clyde Johannsen is a popular young man of a prominent and pioneer Sonoma Valley family. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johannsen, now of Napa, and brother of Misses Edda and Gertrude Johannsen. He was in the Merchant Marine during the war, and made a trip to Japan and Siberia. At the present time he is engaged in the well-contracting business with his father.

Miss Small is a petite blonde, with a wonderfully fine soprano voice and a future in the musical world, so eminent vocal teachers have predicted. She is the daughter of an Eldridge family, her mother being employed at the State Home and her father connected with the railroad.

A shower party was given the pretty bride-to-be by Glen Ellen friends on Thursday of this week.

WEDDING BELLS RING TOMORROW

Miss Rhea Edrington to be Bride at Pretty Home Ceremony in Glen Ellen.

Tomorrow is the wedding day of Miss Rhea Edrington, popular Glen Ellen girl, who will marry J. Hanan, a state inspector, who will take his bride to Southern California to reside. The ceremony will be a quiet home affair, attended by relatives and close friends of the contracting parties.

Miss Eileen Cowen, a charming young lady of Bennett Valley, will be bridesmaid. A naval friend of the groom will act as best man.

Miss Edrington has been the recipient of many beautiful gifts, a shower party given her last week being among the delightful affairs given in her honor, and at which she received both costly and useful presents from admirers and friends.

San Francisco parties by the name of Nathan have purchased from Mrs. Theo. Richards several lots and cottages including the post office building at Agua Caliente. They contemplate a number improvements.

FRED HANSEN'S MOTHER DIES

Beloved Parent of Prominent Poultryman Passed Away in Oakland This Week.

Mrs. Euphemia Hansen, mother of Fred J. Hansen, prominent poultryman and proprietor of the Sonoma Valley Hatchery, died in Oakland Tuesday. Mrs. Hansen had been ailing since before the holidays and went to the Bay City for medical treatment. Everything possible was done for her but to no avail and she passed away after gradually sinking into eternity's shadow.

Mrs. Hansen was a native of Scotland aged 67 years and 1 month. She made her home here for several years with her only son who was tenderly devoted to her.

The funeral took place yesterday from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, and after services at St. Francis church the remains were borne to their last resting place in Mountain cemetery.

Left a widow in 1884, Mrs. Hansen reared and educated her son, giving him the best opportunities for musical and other studies that were obtainable. When quite a young man, Fred Hansen went through a serious illness, and during a long vigil of unceasing devotion, the good mother finally brought her boy back to good health. Mr. Hansen loses the best friend a man has on earth, his mother, and he feels keenly the grief that has come to him, just at the time when he was able to give her all the comforts and happiness that success makes possible.

SONOMA BREWERY TO BE SODA WATER WORKS

The Sonoma Ice and Brewing Company, which some fifteen years ago incorporated to make beer and other drinks, sell ice and engage in business in general, and also expended thousands of dollars in Sonoma for a site and plant for the concern, has decided to convert the brewery into a soft drink factory. The directors have had the plan in mind ever since the enactment of the national prohibition legislation, and details are now well under way for the new business venture.

The ice business will, of course, be continued, and by spring the company will be dispensing all the popular sodas, beids nearbeer, mineral water and grape juice. Much of the brewery equipment and bottling machinery can be utilized for the soda water plant, and also the trucks and carriers, which will insure prompt and efficient service. The company will do both a wholesale and retail business. Angelo Beretta, the popular outside manager, and a director of the company, will continue at the helm.

BASKET BALL TO-NIGHT

The Sonoma High School will play a double-header game of basket ball at Union Hall, tonight, (Saturday Jan. 17) against the Santa Rosa High. 130 pounders start at 8:00 p m and the unlimited start immediately after. Admission 25c.

SHOOTS UP TOWN, IS ARRESTED

Albert Butteri Goes on Rampage and Gets Ninety Days in Which to Think It Over.

Whether brooding over impending prohibition, or qualifying for a wild and wooly movie show, no one knows, but Albert Butteri went on a rampage Wednesday night and tried to shoot up the town. For two nights the neighborhood in the vicinity of the peaceful old Mission heard shots ring out, and finally Constable Murray was called upon to investigate. He detected Butteri with the gun, and took it away from him, warning him to look no more on the wine that is red, and go home.

The following night Deputy Sheriff Ryan was summoned to Butteri's dwelling place in the Old Blue Wing, and found him literally wrecking the place.

Upon the appearance of the Deputy Sheriff, the wild man fled, and was pursued by Ryan, who placed him under arrest.

The following day at three o'clock the malefactor was taken before His Honor Judge Small, for disturbing the peace, and by 4:30 he was in the county bastile serving a 90-days' centence, which the judge dealt out to him, with the warning that he must keep out of the Valley of the Moon when released.

RETURNS TO GLEN ELLEN AFTER 31 YEARS' ABSENCE

Charles Justi, a nephew of Judge Leopold Justi of Glen Ellen, has been enjoying a visit in Sonoma Valley after an absence of thirty-one years. Mr. Justi comes from Southern California, where he is connected with Murrieta Mineral Hot Springs. He started on his vacation a short time ago, and after finding the big cities disquieting, suddenly bethought himself of Glen Ellen, the peaceful scene of his early youth. He arrived there Saturday night last, and found himself at the S. P. depot above town. He was somewhat lost, for in his day nothing but the old Donahue railroad and Sam Lewis, the veteran engineer of that time, was known to him. Despite Glen Ellen's more modern railroad service, Mr. Justi instantly discovered old-time Glen Ellen hospitality, and he was soon being piloted to the Hotel Chauvet and into the presence of his old friend Charley Poppe.

His relatives at the Leo Justi ranch knew nothing of his coming, and he surprised them the day after his arrival by dropping in unannounced.

On Tuesday the stranger and Frank Thierkoff, a former playmate, came to Sonoma, and Mr. Justi tried to find some of the landmarks he had long cherished, but the old pavilion and the vanished depot in the center of town were missing, and Charley refused to enthuse over our new city hall or even the post office, for he wanted to see Poppe's store and some of the old-familiar scenes.

For years Charley Justi was in the theatrical business, being an orchestral leader with several big companies. He has traveled widely, been twice married, and has a son who resides in Sacramento.

"Dry" is the Dawn of the Perfect Day

CONSTITUTONAL PROHIBITION became effective yesterday, and the "drys" presage the dawn of a perfect day in these United States of ours. Let us hope that their sanguine expectations will be fulfilled, and the train of evils for which alcohol has long been held responsible may be banished with one fell swoop. It will prove a costly physic, but if the country is to be cured by it and the human race put forward several pegs in the march of progress, even those whose mouths now droop and water with memories of something stronger can rejoice in their martyrdom. For won't it be a "grand and glorious feeling" to contemplate a coming generation of moral giants, young divinities whom we of this day and age have created through the simple contrivance of a constitutional amendment and the application of lucre once alluded to as "filthy," but in its function of regenerating the race winning a sanctity never before thought possible. What if we have expended millions in straightjacketing the people of this nation and forcing them to accept the cold-water treatment. Racial betterment was at stake. Better discredit Omar Khayyam and freeze the genial current of our souls than have staggered blindly on forever in the bacchanalian morass where unborn souls were doomed to indefinite destruction. Just contemplate the glorious future, the vista now unfolding itself! It will not be long, perhaps, before the most obstinate "wet" will shrink from the thought of what we once considered thumbscrew politics and will even cheer as he puts into effect a decoration day for old John Barleycorn. He will marvel that he ever called those sublime saviors of men "gumshoe" detectives, and prepare to have images of the foremost of them erected at every drinking fountain throughout the country.

What if results of this particular piece of prohibition are not as reassuring as hoped for—a simple matter, now that we have put one over on the country, to put over another. Man was created of dust, remember, but even dry dust hath germs of evil, microbes of potential and virile viciousness, so it may take countless constitutional amendments before we screen out all the evil. Money is conceded to be the source of that great and troublesome Greed with which humanity is beset, so why not eliminate it—a conceded curse—make it a crime to possess it? Police the country with sympathetic Bolshevists who have no patience with it except in the form of salary or under the nomenclature, payroll.

Fling aside Love, folish sentimentalist, which nature thoughtlessly let get by as did the sparkling wine long thought indispensable. Why ferment romance, any more than wine, for in some cases it leads to disaster? Let us rather prohibit it, and substitute the more efficient and highly developed eugenic contract for the betterment of the human race.

Aye, the possibilities are legion, now that we of the United States have steeled ourselves against the destruction of fictitious joys and would scrap the fallacy of personal liberty.

Weep no more, ye thoughtless ones, though this is the funereal aftermath, and grief is yet fresh; we have not turned down the empty glass in vain. Perhaps. This is a great adventure.

Pageants and Realism

SANTA ROSA has sent its representative down from the Chamber of Commerce to see how Sonoma feels about the Bear Flag pageant which it is hoped will make Santa Rosa the mecca of a big crowd in June. We believe that we speak for the community when we say that Sonoma is always hand in hand with any project for the prosperity and progress of Sonoma county. Santa Rosa will get a money-spending crowd as a benefit from the pageant, and wide publicity through the moving picture films which will be taken of our history. The public, however, will lose much of the realism and actual historic background which could be given them if the pageant were staged here in Sonoma, the scene of the incidents to be simulated. Here on the very site of the raising of the Bear Flag, where the monument has been reared to commemorate that stirring event, 'neath the shadows of the early-day barracks, and in the hallowed presence of the old Mission San Francisco de Solano, the county should really stage the pageant.

If Sonoma town is up and coming, however, we may get many tourists to make the pilgrimage hither to see our landmarks and historic ground after they have witnessed the sham battle at Santa Rosa in June.

Had the affair been well talked over before a decision to give it had been made, we believe the time would have been deferred until Sonoma county shall have completed her highways, and the state unit from Schellville to Santa Rosa was also an accomplished fact.

Folks enjoy some old-fashioned and historic things, but the modern traveler loudly protests against going over stage coach ruts and bumps, whether flivvering in a Ford or motoring in a Cadillac.

Well Said

"IT IS INDEED passing strange that men and women have to be urged to exercise the first privilege of a sovereign citizenship—the right to govern themselves. Yet urged they must be. And it is because of that fact that governmental evils develop. Government functions through individuals. These individuals are elected by the processes of practical politics, a sequence which cannot be avoided. We can have better government only if we interest ourselves in politics, in the selection of those to whom the government is entrusted, in having thought and voice in its operation, and in making our country's affairs our own business. If a political party does not stand for those things which will bear the severest scrutiny, it is not entitled to succeed, and it will not endure."—Will H. Hays, Republican National chairman.

"GRANDPA" FROMENT IS NEW TITLE NOW

The stork arrived at the Mazuie home in San Francisco this week, and brought a little daughter to gladden the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mazuie (nee Antoinette Froment). Congratulations are being showered upon our townsman, A. Froment, who is a proud grandfather now. The baby has been named Marguerite.

SONOMA'S PROUD RECORD

In the sale of the little Christmas seals for the Red Cross tuberculosis fund, Sonoma took second place, as shown by figures reported by the various towns of the county. Santa Rosa led, and then came Sonoma, with a report of $285, which is a proud showing and a decided credit to our zealous citizens, Mesdames Green and Hill, who with the aid of the schools made the sales.

FARM ADVISER WAS IN SONOMA VALLEY YESTERDAY

A pruning demonstration proved a valuable and instructive lesson to our orchardists as given by Farm Adviser George E. Merill and W. M. Buster at the H. G. Biers place yesterday.

The visiting horticulturists made a strong appeal for the upbuilding of the Sonoma Farm Center, in which it is to be hoped interest will revive. Sonoma Valley could and should have as fine a Farm Center as any community in the state.

ED LIVERNASH'S DAUGHTER DIES IN SAN FRANCISCO

Alberta Livernash Hyde, daughter of Ed Livernash, a former owner of the Sonoma Index-Tribune, died in San Francisco this week, after an illness of one week. She was a talented pianist, and was a relative of the Overton family of Santa Rosa.

NEW AUTO FERRY SERVICE

Automobilists will be interested to know that the new auto ferry service across Carquinez straits is nearing completion, and is expected to be in operation prior to Washington's birthday in February. This line will run from Morow Cove, one mile below South Vallejo, to Valona on the Contra Costa side, the property adjoining the lumber mill at Crockett. This is the narrowest point in the channel and the actual time of crossing will not exceed five minutes. To allow sufficient margin, however, the corporation is formed under the name of "The Six-Minute Ferry." It is practically a reorganization of the Association of Mare Island Employees, which conducted the ferry service from Vallejo to Mare Island for about five years past, the new company taking over the property on May 15th last, upon the payment of $50,000. Since that time the new company has caried on that enterprise with the steamer Vallejo.

The hull and machinery of the former Key Route steamer San Jose were purchased last July, and the vessel was rebuilt at Vallejo by the ferry company, being now practically completed. The new superstructure is 12 feet 6 inches in the clear, giving ample room for moving vans of the largest type. New bents of piling are being driven in the Valona Causeway, leading over the railroad tracks, which will reduce the spans to but ten feet, insuring perfect safety for all loads.

More than a mile of roadway has been constructed and paved by the company, leading from South Vallejo to the Cove, affording a picturesque drive over the rolling hills. The slips on both sides of the channel are of the latest design, with overhead gallows frame, and full length spring lines on both sides.

This new route is not impaired by the grade crossing of railroad tracks, and as it is expected to maintain a twenty-minute service, the auto public will be well taken care of. As the San Jose is a screw boat, practically the entire main deck is one open space, affording accommodation for from 65 to 70 machines on each trip.

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS AT SCHELLVILLE HOME

PROMISES TREAT TO BOXING FANS

Louis Parente's Talent Will Stage Some Events at El Verano Tomorrow Afternoon.

Louis Parente, the San Francisco boxing promoter wha has been staging many bouts at the Coliseum in San Francisco, is improving his training quarters at El Verano, and expects to make it the headquarters of many noted boxers. For the benefit of local fans and admirers of the game from visiting points, Mr. Parente will give exhibitions now and then. Tomarrow afternoon he has arranged an attractive series of events, as will be seen by the following letter:

El Verano, January 15, 1920.

Sporting Editor Sonoma Index-Tribune—Dear Sir: I have come up to the Valley to my place in El Verano to make a few improvements on the grounds, in particular the gymnasium and training quarters, for the boxers that come up here from all over the world, so when they go back East they will go away with a good impression of Sonoma Valley.

One of the boxers who will make El Verano his regular training quarters will be Sergeant Harlan Bunker, the next heavy-weight champion of the world. Sgt. Bunker is 23 years of age, stands 6 feet 3 inches high in his stocking feet, weighs close to 200 pounds, is fast as a light weight, can take a good punch, hit a hard blow himself, and has a natural left hand.

Joe White, the tomato king of the Valley of the Moon, as well as a boxer with the longest string of victories that any boy around here has to his credit, is the manager and foreman of my place, and will box all comers in his spare time. He will entertain all the boxing fans of the Valley when they come down on the training grounds to see the boys work out.

"Buck" Holley, who is a newcomer in the boxing game in the welterweight class, and who has not yet met defeat in the ring, is working out here, starting Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. "Buck" has been engaged lately between his fights in breaking horses for Joe Ryan. He invites all of his friends to visit his training quarters Sunday afternoon, as he will box with Sailor Renshaw and the mystery of the boxing game, "Wild" Willie Webb. Renshaw will take on all comers, including "Billy" Murray, who is at Petaluma and is about to make a come back. Renshaw, who was the welter-weight of the Pacific fleet, has a gold belt with the American flag. The gold belt will be on exhibition Sunday for the ladies to inspect as well as the boys.

The training quarters have been moved to a better location on the grounds, and are fitted up to accommodate the ladies as well as the boys. All are invited free. Thee boxing and gym work will start at two o'clock.

Joe White and Billy Brannon, the ex-champion of Chinatown, will act as hosts during the afternoon's program. Yours truly,

LOUIS PARENTE.

SAY CLASSFIED ADS PAY

Wm. F. Clewe, the Sonoma merchant and furniture man, is convinced that Sonoma Index-Tribune advertising always pays. A few months ago he wanted to sell a second-hand range, taken in exchangefor one of his new enameled ranges, and he put an ad in the Index-Tribune, with the result that he could have sold a carload. Last week he advertised another one, and a thrifty reader of the classified column in this newspaper was in the store in no time and bought the bargain stove.

A. W. Adler advertised some pine planking last week, and he had an avalanche of callers, too, as a result of the ad.

If you want to buy or sell anything, put an ad in the Index-Tribune. We guarantee results.

Louis Foster is here from San Francisco convalescent from a ten-weeks' siege of sleeping sickness. He would awaken every two days, take nourishment, and then relapse into the coma. He now feels well, and is visiting at the W. W. Carter home.

Peter Fisher has purchased the 100 acre ranch formerly owned by Barney Cohen and situated in the hills back of Agua Caliente.

NO TRESPASSING

Hunting, fishing and trespassing of all kinds strictly forbidden on this ranch under penalty of the law.

V. LEVERONI,
Leasee of Snyder Ranch

NO TRESPASSING

Notice is hereby given by the owners, that no hunting or trespassing will be permitted on the former Dutton ranch under penalty of the law.

STEVE PROUT OF GLEN ELLEN SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

Steve Prout, the genial butcher of Glen Ellen, got the surprise of his young life on his birthday last week, when a crowd of friends and neighbors gathered at his home to wish him many happy returns of the day, and to make merry over the fact that Mr. Prout is growing older but looking younger every birthday. Quite unsuspicious of all the plot of the surprise party, Steve was decoyed into dressing up and going over to Panerazi Hall, where he was told something in the way of a party was in progress.

When he left the house, the merrymakers arrived and took possession of it. Mrs. Prout made them welcome, and soon the genial Steve walked in on the company. To say he was surprised does not half express it, and everyone enjoyed a long-to-be-rememberd good time.

Th following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Poppe, Mr. and Mrs. Thierkoff, Mr. and Mrs. Edrington, Mr. and Mrs. Scheick, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. The office furniture turned out last year won high commendation, and this season Mr. Adler is to fill big orders for dressers, chiffoniers and similar pieces. He is much encouraged at the outlook, and if his plans go forward as they have been going, Sonoma will soon have a busy industry in its midst, with a substantial payroll.

CHRISTMAS day and the whole house is astir. Pies and cakes and biscuits are baking—and through the door is wafted the fragrance of good things to eat. Then out of the oven comes the steaming turkey roasted to a beautiful turn—crisp and tender and savory—for it was cooked in a WEDGEWOOD, the range that makes every meal a perfect success.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Allen McGimsey

Friday, January 9th, Sonoma's 130 pound and Unlimited Basket Ball teams clashed with those of Analy High for the first time this season.

Promptly at eight o'clock the ball was tossed between the two 130-pound teams. The playing was fast and furious from start to finish, but, although Analy put up a stiff fight, the game went to Sonoma by a final score of 28 to 38. Sonoma's pride in its 130-pound team was justified.

But in the next game, between the unlimited teams, Analy turned the tables, and Sonoma went down to defeat to the tune of 24 to 38.

Nevertheless, it was a hard game. Our boys fought to the last, even when they saw that defeat was inevitable. It was the spirit of the boys who played which made the spectators proud of them.

Enough cannot be said of the fine crowd of young people who came to Sonoma to witness the game. They mingled with the Sonoma rooters throughout the game, and talked and laughed with everyone. That's the kind of people "Sonoma Hi" likes to welcome. "Come again, Analy.."

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.
